 THE LEGEND - 1985

Seniors on the move!

Aware of the past, restructuring the present, ready to attack and conquer the future, we, the class of 1985 are stepping into tomorrow.

A bit shy, perhaps, but eager to apply what we have learned and more willing to learn what is necessary for our total growth, we begin our journey toward success.

We came: wide-eyed, young, nervous and unsure. Apprehensive, eager to blend with those before us. We are leaving: older, more stable, knowledgeable, better equipped to contribute ourselves and our skills in society's role for us.

It has not been easy for us, but we have triumphed. We are grateful to so many and our thanks and appreciation can best be returned by our continued success.

We have learned our motto, and we have learned it well:

"A LESSON IN CLASS"

Administration

Lawrence Major
Principal

Dear Friends,

Weequahic High School is exhibiting a NEW IMAGE-NEW ATTITUDE, which suggests the presence of powerful realities working for the collective good of our entire community. Both concepts are necessary to describe the positive developments taking place at Weequahic High School.

The NEW IMAGE, is not a mere cosmetics put on to impress visitors, parents, friends, and the Central Board of Education. The academic, moral and behavioral dimensions of this NEW IMAGE emphasizes Weequahic High School's determination to pursue excellence in all that it does.

This NEW IMAGE is not limited to the academic spheres. It includes character formation, compassion, cooperation and reverence for the sacredness of human life and the universe in which we live.

The NEW IMAGE emanates from a NEW ATTITUDE. The NEW ATTITUDE is characterized by the excitement and enthusiasm of our entire faculty, student body and community for the goals of excellence as they are pursued in all athletic contests, classrooms and all other school activities. Weequahic High is an alive, resurging, vigorous learning institution: optimistic about its future and deserving of all the success that will eventually be ours.

This yearbook tells the story of our life, work, study, cooperative efforts, and future plans at Weequahic High School. The yearbook staff and advisor are to be commended for this dramatic and attractive presentation of Weequahic's NEW IMAGE - NEW ATTITUDE.

Yours truly,

Lawrence Major
Principal

Class:

- n. 1. A body of persons considered to have certain social or other characteristics in common.
2. Elegance
3. Superiority
4. A number of things grouped together as having common properties.

Striving for class, elegance, and, superiority in accomplishments, we move on.
We leave to the Undergraduates:

hope - for the future,
tolerance - of human frailty,
truth - in all they endeavor,
sympathy - for those less fortunate,
self-respect - for womenkind and mankind,
courage - to meet and deal with daily tasks,
humility - the highest virtue,
imagination - the spark of life,
knowledge - the key to life,
pride - for we ARE somebody,
music - for a heart without a song is a lonely heart,
love - the principle of existence,
justice - truly for all,
freedom - for all the oppressed, and, PEACE.

Kim, Andre and Linda all have that
"Senior glow"!

Memories . . .

The 1985 Weequahic Homecoming Parade displayed class, style, talent and beauty.

The Weequahic Marching Indians, under the direction of Otis Brown Jr., gave our school the reputation of having the best band in Newark!

Vice Principals

Norma Brown

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate the graduates of 1985. You hold a special place in my heart and memories, because most of you were students in the Music Foundations during my last year of teaching. In many ways, we've grown and advanced together - you, to the fulfillment of graduation, and myself, to the position I now hold.

I wish you all the very best of all that life has to offer, and challenge you to not let this be the end of your formal education, whether it be via college, the armed services or in the business world - make a learning situation out of all of your experiences.

Strive always for the best, and if you set your goals in dreams you believe in, they will come true.

Best Wishes,
Norma Brown

Charles Meadows

How rapidly time eludes us. It seems as though it were only yesterday, you were sitting in the auditorium about to receive your "Freshmen Orientation". You were immature, fickle, confused and restless ninth graders, frightened by the enormity of Weequahic High School. As a result of the individual and group efforts put forth, you have matured and are ready to challenge the structure.

Allow yourself the luxury of reminiscing for but a few minutes; think of the hours of labor, the hardship, the frustrations, the moments of triumphs you have experienced in the last four years. Profit from these valuable experiences because as a result of them, you are aware of what it requires to achieve success.

Ladies and gentlemen, you possess intelligence, integrity, dexterity, perseverance and determination. Utilize these qualities judiciously and your accomplishments will amaze you. Due to the experiences we have shared in the last four years, I have often thought of myself as the surrogate parent. I will remember and cherish the thoughts of you for many years. I wish you the best.

Fondly,
Charles Meadows

Vice Principals

Benjamin O'Neal

First of all congratulations to the seniors of the class of June 1985; allow me to join the list of many wishing you success and prosperity.

As you venture into the world of business or higher education forget not those who inspired and urged you to always give your best effort. Today your parents and teachers have helped to shape your mind, tomorrow you will be the molder of the future.

Youngsters will look to you for advice and inspiration, remember your days of confusion and despair, administer it with love.

Respectfully,
Benjamin O'Neal

"No one can make you feel inferior without your consent."
- Eleanor Roosevelt

This quote is chosen for its relevance for me and for you. As Newarkers we are often subjected to condemnation for many reasons, in part because we exist in the shadow of New York. As a woman I have known discrimination, but I cannot begin to know the discrimination you have felt. Yet we must not allow the condemnation of others, nor the discrimination of fools thwart our drive for success and accomplishment.

I encourage you to follow your dreams, to be strong in your convictions, and to remember the legacy your families have worked to provide you. Remember that at graduation you will leave behind many of us whose successes are touched by your own. I thank you for the opportunity of working with you and for you. Learn to create your own structure and learn to recognize and appreciate consistency, whether in the application of values or in spirit.

My warmest wishes for your future.

As you look back over your school years it may seem that you have come to the end of a long road, but in truth you are just beginning a journey that will take you down many highways and by-ways. I hope that we, the faculty and administration of Weequahic High School have helped you acquire the knowledge and skills to embark upon your journey into life with confidence and determination. Congratulations and good luck.

The Guidance Department has helped many students choose a course of study that would point them toward success. Juggling schedules, checking earned credits, scheduling college appointments and appointments with Armed Service personnel are all a part of a day's work. We thank them for their untiring, unselfish help.

Homecoming Parade 1984

HOMECOMING - 1984 was a complete success! The OBA, under the advisorship of Ms. Devator Hooks, began working very early and very hard to put together a powerful display of talent, style, beauty and imagination. Everybody worked! Administrators, faculty, staff, parents, friends, but most of all, the students and hopeful participants all worked over and above the call of duty to make everything successful.

Fresh - Men

THE METAMORPHOSIS from freshman to senior is amazing! Freshmen are wide-eyed, nervous. As sophomores, they think they know all there is to know, and spend the majority of their 10th grade telling all, they know all. By their junior year they are almost ready; they do have polish and a bit of style. They are, however a little afraid of what is yet to come. As a senior, they are armed with the tools to attack and survive life.

Friends

Although we soon will leave our Alma Mater, the friends we've made, the memories shared will stay in our minds and hearts forever.

A Message From Your President.

I would like to say congratulations to the graduating class of 1985, and I would like for each of you to succeed in whatever you endeavor. As you journey through life, many of you will go to colleges and trade schools. Some will go into the world of work, and some will enlist in the Service. Whatever goal you decide to pursue will be your choice; however, work hard and be the best that you can be in whatever you choose.

A special note of thanks and encouragement is extended by me to my fellow athletes; I hope that each of you will succeed academically as well as athletically in your respective colleges and universities.

Good luck to all of you.

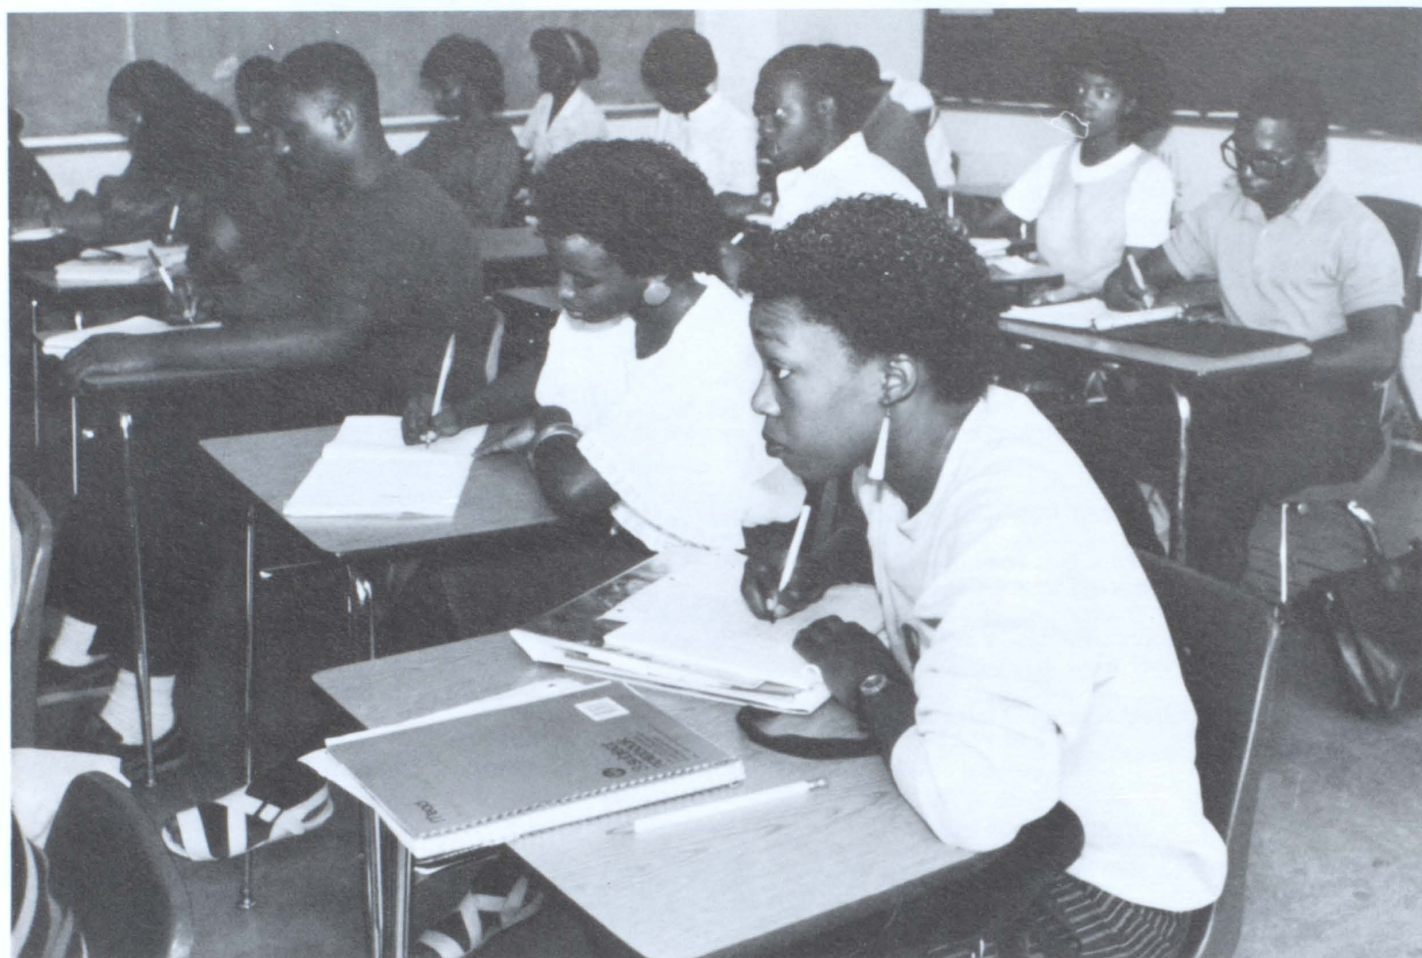

Sincerely,

Michael Dillard
President of the Class of 1985

Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Recognition in Who's Who Among American High School Students is an honor for these fellow graduates. They have demonstrated achievement in either academics, athletics or extra-curricular activities.

Twelve-thousand five-hundred high schools select students from their school but, only five percent are chosen to be included in Who's Who.

Who's Who Among American High Schools is a reference of all outstanding high school students in the United States. When chosen, you may apply for a $1,000. scholarship and $50,000. worth of awards will be given to chosen students. Other services are: inclusion to the College Referral Service, participation in annual student polls, and local publicity in area newspapers.

Hats off!, to the following Weequahic Seniors who have been chosen to be included in Who's Who Among American High School Students:

Our Proud Family

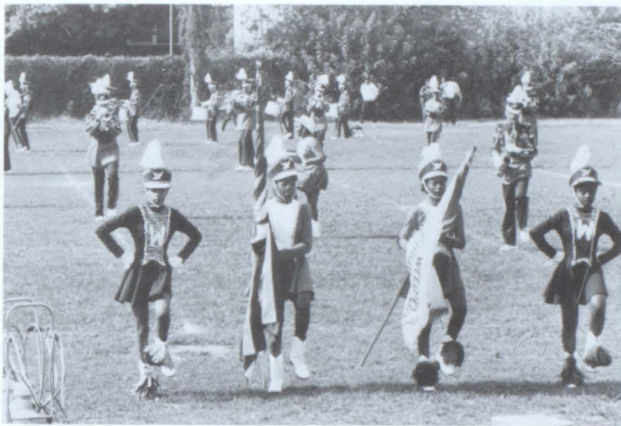

Our proud family is a blend of many shapes, sizes, moods and minds. We are together from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., and sometimes earlier or longer. We work, learn, laugh and explore. Our positive attitude pushes us towards success.

The following pages will take you on a visual journey through the heartbeat of Weequahic High.

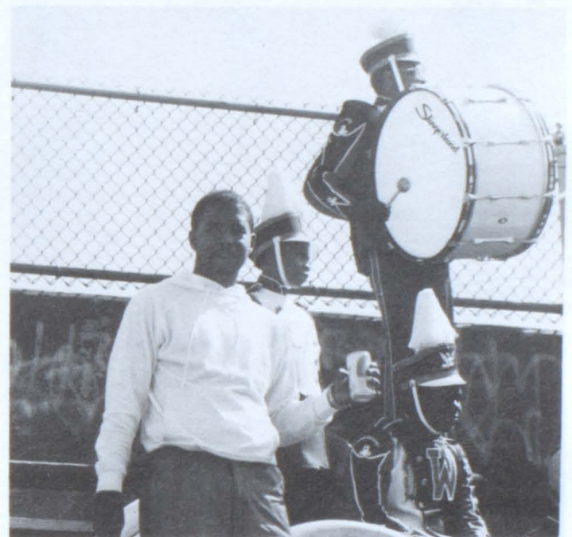

Enjoy your trip!

Miss Andrea Jones Editor-In-Chief 1985 Legend

I wish to express my sincere congratulations to all of the Graduates of 1985. I know it seemed as though we would never make it, but we have. The friends we have made will last a long time.

It has been fun putting our Yearbook together. We all worked very hard to make the 1985 Legend reflect our last and best year. I thank our Staff and Advisor and the many people who volunteered their time, ideas and energy. I hope you enjoy your Legend. It is, I think, a "Lesson In Class".

Sincerely,
Andrea Jones

Senior Class Advisor:

Mrs. Sharon Berry

It has been my privilege to work with the graduating Class of 1985. We have had to climb many mountains, but, by leaning on, and, supporting each other, we have made it to the top. I wish you the very best in all you do. Continue to strive for your goals; remember to be true to yourself and to be honest and kind. May all of you be successful and have peace in your lives.

Sincerely,
Sharon D. Berry

1985 Legend Advisor:

Mrs. Kathleen B. Holmes

Seniors! I congratulate you! You have worked and your work has been a contributing factor towards your graduation. You have been successful in your schooling and, if you continue to use your abilities to their fullest, and you recognize, set and strive for your goals, you will succeed.

The 1985 Legend Staff and I have worked hard to make our 1985 Legend reflect the many 'happenings' of the 1984-85 school year. Enjoy your book, enjoy Graduation and, enjoy your future. I wish you well.

Fondly,
Kathleen B. Holmes
